

WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR?

Hurricane season is just around the corner...wait a minute...may be it's already here. Fay just drenched Florida for the fourth record-breaking time and high winds are blowing all the way into North Carolina. We sit in innocent bliss here in Ecuador. Sunshine almost every day. Spring temperatures in Cotacachi and tropical beach weather in San Clemente.

Once you arrive in Quito you can now travel to your beach home easier and quicker. Icaro Airlines, one of Ecuador's National Airlines, now provides service from Quito to Bahia de Caraquez on Friday and Sunday. From Bahia de Caraquez airport to San Clemente is a half hour taxi ride.

If you choose the Atlanta to Guayaquil flight, connections are available to Manta on Tame Airlines. Manta is about an hour south of San Clemente, or there are many flights on the national airlines from Guayaquil to Quito if you choose this route.

Wild fish, fresh veggies, fruits, and antioxidant-rich beans are full of cancer-fighting nutrients and naturally keep your blood sugar levels stable. They are all here in the market. Fresh, tasty, and for a fraction of the price you are paying in your grocery store in the States.

Properties in Cotacachi and San Clemente are gated communities. They provide twenty-four hour security services...no unexpected guests knocking on your door...private water supplies, underground electrical services and paved, well-lit streets, choice of several floor plans, and best of all...financing may be available from the North American developer. No hassles from the bank!
